

Violet Personality

Your keywords: connection, charisma, empathy, sensitivity and gentleness

What you are learning: Self-knowledge

You are generous and inspirational and your gentle energy gives out natural support to all those around you. You light up any gathering, but it is up to you to choose whether you wish to be the centre of attention or to hide in the background. You can be extremely charming and ooze charisma when you are comfortable in your surroundings.

You make excellent leaders especially on the world stage; many of our greatest teachers and leaders have been Violets. You tend to be generous with your time and your money and love to lead by example.

You love beautiful things and if given the choice would surround yourself with luxury. You are very capable of creating great masterpieces whether written, poetic or musical as most of the information you receive is channelled from a higher source.

You relate to the crown in the body, so you have plenty of ideas and are very good at coming up with new ways to inspire old beliefs. You are empathetic and make great councillors, listening intently to those with their troubles and supporting them as they make the changes in their lives. Your feminine energy allows you to access emotions that others are not aware of, so be gentle on yourself and those around you.

At times you can become melancholy and like to hide away. The harsh realities of life can get you down, as you are truly a very sensitive soul. Retreating into your own world is possible and even further if you don't watch your tendency to want to escape. You can have destructive tendencies, so be gentle and kind with yourself allowing others you trust into your private world.

Restore and rejuvenate yourself by taking off from the hustle and bustle of daily life and recreating some of your inspired ideas and inventions. Keep focused on the simplest solutions and one day, who knows, you may have changed the face of the planet.
